

THE CONTEMPORARY COLLECTION

WELCOME TO THE CONTEMPORARY COLLECTION

This diverse new collection of exclusive editions ranges from innovative city scenes to tranquil landscapes, alongside some captivating new pieces celebrating love and friendship from two of our favourite artists – just in time for Valentine’s day. And talking of love, a highlight of the collection is a commemorative piece from Mr. Brainwash which pays affectionate homage to Her Majesty the Queen in her Platinum Jubilee year.

All artworks shown are now available to purchase through your gallery.

ROYAL LOVE

Mr BRAINWASH

ROYAL LOVE CELEBRATES QUEEN ELIZABETH II'S PLATINUM JUBILEE WITH A NEW LIMITED EDITION WHICH IS BOTH AN AFFECTIONATE TRIBUTE TO A MUCH-LOVED MONARCH AND A DAZZLING ARTWORK CREATED THROUGH AN ELEGANT AND ELABORATE PROCESS.

Bold and striking, the image is a silkscreen print composed of 16 colours, each applied in a separate layer with painstaking accuracy and skill to create a high definition, exclusive collector's edition of 80. First used 1,000 years ago in China, silkscreen printing enjoyed a revival in the 1960s when pop artists such as Andy Warhol recognised the potency of graphic commercial images created with vibrant block colours. Modern technology has combined with traditional artisan techniques to bring the process into the 21st century and it is now a favoured method of many crossover street artists including Mr. Brainwash. With Royal Love, he has achieved a highly sophisticated images with exceptional vibrancy and clarity.
