NEW COLLECTION

We are delighted to introduce a new collection of fabulous limited editions from the unique talent of Jennifer Hogwood. Jennifer's bold, distinctive style arises from an unerring sense of colour, a singular talent for observation, and a huge affection for her friends 'The McMoos'. This endearing set of images and sculpture communicates the essence of her subject with humour and charm.

“Highland cows have such individual personalities and a lovely innocence about them.”

These two images show Jen in gentle and reflective mood. Pink and blue pastel backdrops give a peaceful feel to the overall scene which is highlighted by the happy coexistence of tiny creatures and colourful flowers. The signature use of jewels as embellishment means each lovable character also has a genuine twinkle in their eye.
