THE FACE OF MODERN BRITISH IMPRESSIONISM

Sherree Valentine-Daines has won multiple awards and has exhibited at such prestigious venues as the Tate Gallery, the Barbican, the New English Art Club and the Lord's Museum. Her commissions include paintings of Ashes series at every test ground for the BBC, a commemorative Ascot piece for Bollinger, and a 90th birthday gift for Her Majesty the Queen from the Royal Household. She has painted many portraits of the great and the good, from Sir Michael Parkinson and Joanna Lumley to Rick Stein, and was honoured to paint a 100th birthday commemorative portrait of Dame Vera Lynn. In 2019 she was appointed official artist to Cunard's Three Queens.
